

Georgia Employment Law, 4th

By James W. Wimberly, Jr.

Provides a tool for the practitioner who needs to know state and federal employment principles applicable in Georgia.

Written for the employment attorney or others encountering employment issues in Georgia, Georgia Employment Law covers principles found in Georgia statutes and cases, as well as issues not yet addressed by the Georgia courts or legislature. It covers:

- Independent contractors
- Covenants not to compete
- Compensation and benefits
- Terms and conditions of employment
- Discrimination in employment
- Torts relating to the employment relationship

Wimberly's examination is supported by citations to Georgia statutes, cases, and regulations, as well as federal law. He compares the similarities and differences between state and federal employment principles, and which ones might be appropriate to given situations.
