2022 LABOR & EMPLOYMENT LAW UPDATE CONFERENCE

November 17-18, 2022

Wimberly Lawson is pleased to celebrate the 41st Anniversary of our Labor & Employment Law Update Conference. The event started as a small local seminar, and has grown steadily in size and success. I would like to personally thank our many attendees over the years and recognize our attorneys that have made the Conference a success through their long standing commitment to excellence in the field of labor and employment law.

Every year, the Conference is truly the high point for our firm- a time to gather with friends and discuss important issues in the areas of labor and employment.

Our day and a half program covers a sweeping range of relevant laws, important legal decisions, and societal trends affecting labor and employment. Approximately thirty employment law attorneys will present more than thirty-five topics that have been carefully selected to address the concerns of all employers. This year's Conference will offer sessions that summarize relevant past year's developments while offering insights into ongoing changes in the employment and labor climate.
