TPS Update (as of 11/26/2025)

The Trump Administration has acted to terminate TPS status for several countries. Of course, litigation has followed each notice of termination. However, if the Trump Administration continues to follow the law, these terminations will be upheld because the Secretary of Homeland Security has vast discretion to terminate TPS status and courts do not have authority to review the exercise of that discretion. The following table provides the work authorization expiration dates and TPS status expiration dates. Notably, a person may lose work authorization but still have TPS status. The most recent changes are italicized.

@Court litigation has extended work authorization and TPS status for Syrians beyond November 21, 2025. The government intends to appeal the district court decision and is expected to prevail on appeal.

*Employees from these countries may not have work authorization unless they have completed registration and application requirements by certain deadlines.
